

Community Services Awareness Day is an opportunity to speak with representatives from organizations in the area that promote healthy and safe choices as well as other community services.

Individuals may speak with the organizations not only about the services they offer, but can also find volunteer options to give back to the community.

For more information concerning Community

Services Awareness Day, please contact Leigh Bailey at 769-1551 x4861 or lbailey@gulfcoast.edu.

- Event will be held outside under the sails and on the patio of the Student Union East and will be limited to the first forty (40) respondents. Alternate location for inclement weather will be the Cafeteria inside the Student Union East.
- One table and two chairs are provided for each organization participating in the event.
- A temporary parking permit will be issued to those participating.
- Each organization is asked to provide a door prize if possible.
- There is no charge or booth fee for this event.
- Deadline to be added to the publicity flyer is March 9.
